JOURNAL

25X1

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

25X1

Tuesday - 17 December 1963

25X1

Helt, acting Staff Director, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and separately with Boyd Grawford, Staff Director, House Foreign Affairs Committee, and raised a question whether they knew of any plans by individual members or by committee personnel for travel to the Far East. Neither is familiar with any plans for such travel at the present time. (See hiemorandum For The Record for details.)  Chatted with Jay Sourwine, Chief Counsel of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee (who was to have been the counsel for the Judiciary Committee study of the Presidential assassination and need for legislation in this field), about the substance of any legislative preposal in this field. I mantioned our overall concern in this field citing the possibility of the assassination of someone like his George Bundy. I also mentioned the fact that the DCI and DDCI were not included in those persons whose assassination would constitute a federal exime. Sourwine said that from the legislative standpoint, no action would be taken in this area until the Fresident's Board had made its findings and recommendations. With respect to actions against the		During the day I met with Pat Committee, and raised a question whether they knew of any plans by individual members or by committee personnel for travel to the Far East. Neither is familiar with any plans for such travel at the present time. (See Memorandum For The Record for details.)  Counsel of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee (who was to have been the counsel for the Judiciary Committee study of the Presidential assassination and need for legislation in this field), about the substance of any legislative preposal in this field. I mentioned our overall concern in this field citing the possibility of the assassination of someone like McGeorge Bundy. I also mentioned the fact that the DCI and DDCI were not included in those persons whose assassination would constitute a federal crime. Sourwine said that from the legislative standpoint, no action would be taken in this area until the President's Board had made its findings and recommendations. With respect to actions against the Chatted with Jay Sourwine, Chief Counsel of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee (who was to have been the counsel for the Judiciary Committee study of the Presidential assassination and need for legislation in this field), about the substance of any legislative preposal in this field. I mantioned our overall concern in this field citing the possibility of the assassination of someone like legislative Bundy. I also mentioned the fact that the DCI and DDCI were not included in those persons whose assassination would constitute a federal crime. Sourwine said that from the legislative standpoint, no action would be taken in this area until the President's Board had made its findings and recommendations. With respect to actions against the Chatted with Jay Sourwine, Chief Counsel of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee (who was to have been the counsel for the Judiciary Committee study of the Presidential assassination and need for legislation in this field), about the substance of any legislative preposal in this field. I mentioned our overall concern in this field citing the possibility of the assassination of someone like lecGoorge Bundy. I also mentioned the fact that the DCI and DDCI were not included in those persons whose assassination would constitute a lederal crime. Sourwine said that from the legislative standpoint, no action would be taken in this area until the President's Board had made its findings and recommendations. With respect to actions against the Counsel of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee (who was to have been the counsel for the Judiciary Committee study of the Presidential assassination and need for legislation in this field), about the substance of any legislative preposal in this field. I mentioned our overall concern in this field citing the possibility of the assassination of someone like McGeorge Bundy. I also mentioned the fact that the DCI and DDCI were not included in those persons whose assassination would constitute a lederal crime. Sourwine said that from the legislative standpoint, no action would be taken in this area until the President's Board had made its findings and recommendations. With respect to actions against the
Counsel of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee (who was to have been the counsel for the Judiciary Committee study of the Presidential assessination and need for legislation in this field), about the substance of any legislative proposal in this field. I mentioned our overall concern in this field citing the possibility of the assessination of someone like McGeorge Bundy. I also mentioned the fact that the DCI and DDCI were not included in those persons whose assessination would constitute a federal crime. Sourwise said that from the legislative standpoint, no action would be taken in this area until the President's Board had made its findings and recommendations. With respect to actions against the	lime. (See Memore	andum For The Record for details.)
DCI and DDCI. It was his informal view that we would be better our making	Counsel of the Sense been the counsel for assessination and n of any legislative pa in this field citing to become Bundy.	te internal Security Subcommittee (who was to have red Judiciary Committee study of the Presidential seed for legislation in this field), about the substance reposal in this field. I mentioned our overall concern the possibility of the assassination of someone like I also mentioned the fact that the DCI and DDCI were federal crime. Som action would be take its findings and rec DCI and DDGI, it w	er in this area until the President's Board had made federal erime. Som action would be take its findings and rec DCI and DDCI, it w	trwine said that from the legislative standpoint, no en in this area until the Freeldent's Board had made commendations. With respect to actions against the see his informal view that we would be better off making
	federal erime. Som action would be take its findings and rec DCI and DDCI, it w	trwine said that from the legislative standpoint, no en in this area until the Fresident's Board had made commendations. With respect to actions against the see his informal view that we would be better off making
	federal erime. Som action would be take its findings and rec DCI and DDCI, it w	trwine said that from the legislative standpoint, no en in this area until the President's Board had made commendations. With respect to actions against the see his informal view that we would be better off making federal crime. Som action would be take its findings and rec DCI and DDGI, it w	trwine said that from the legislative standpoint, no en in this area until the Fresident's Board had made commendations. With respect to actions against the see his informal view that we would be better off making federal crime. Son action would be take its findings and rec DCI and DDGI, it w	trwine said that from the legislative standpoint, no en in this area until the President's Board had made commendations. With respect to actions against the see his informal view that we would be better off making

25X1